Authenticity That's Truly Historic

El Palomar

Jose's Cantina

For a taste of superbly authentic Mexican cuisine, spiced with the flavors of local history, there's no place like El Palomar.

Sitting in the grandiose beauty of El Palomar's spacious garden room is as enjoyable as the food—traditionally Mexican, yet inspired by the rich abundance of our area's homegrown natural ingredients and freshly caught seafood.

Right next door, in Jose's Cantina, a delightful, open-air atmosphere complements your old favorites: Fresh salsa, crisp tortilla chips, and refreshing margaritas—made with the finest Cuervo Gold tequila.

Stop in for happy hour at the Cantina, or treat your whole family to a memorable meal at El Palomar, and take home a piece of local history.
